

Editing and Writing Services

02 4782 9003

11 Kundibar Street, Katoomba, New South Wales 2780

Frans Timmerman and Anitra Nelson specialise in editing academic work: theses, conference proceedings, journal articles, books, monographs and course materials. Our joint experience spans most disciplines.

We edit business, government and personal work too. Our clients range from non-profit organisations to businesses, individuals and government agencies.

Services include: abstracting, researching, copyediting/subediting, structural editing, writing and rewriting (including in plain English), proofreading, checking details and support-to-publish.

Frans Timmerman, Accredited Editor (AE) Institute of Professional Editors

Frans gained a BSc from the UNSW. He was a full-time editor in the CSIRO for several years before becoming a partner in a desktop publishing firm. He worked for politicians for over a decade. In recent years – alongside running Chekhov's Three Sisters Second Hand Books – he has freelanced as an editor and writer.

Dr Anitra Nelson, Professional Member Society of Editors (NSW)

Anitra has decades of experience as a university researcher and teacher in the social sciences, including: history and biography, the environment, sociology, economics, Latin American studies, film and housing studies. She is the author of numerous journal articles, conference papers, study guides and books, and a creative writer (with an Advanced Diploma in Professional Screenwriting).

We edit a lot of theses and follow the guidelines established by universities – see <http://iped-editors.org/sites/iped-editors.org/files/case_thesis_standards.pdf>

Please email or telephone us about your job and timeline, so that we can give you a quote.
